

Valli&Valli

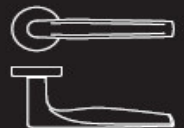

Stehr Enterprises would like to officially announce that we are your new Valli & Valli representatives for the MD, DC, DE and VA markets as of 7-1-2009!

The handle, as conceived by Valli&Valli, has traditionally conveyed a home's style and functional elegance and, as a decorative object therein, will remain an important element of interior décor well into the future. Guided by this vision, Valli&Valli created vcr Valli&Valli and Fusital, trademark collections recognized for their technological sophistication and signature contemporary aesthetic.
